

Table of Contents

The Law relating to Aggravated Damages	1
David Culleton
A snapshot of surrogacy in Ireland with a comparative look at international practices	25
Bronagh O'Hanlon, Katie Winder and Chloe O'Reilly
Friends with Collateral Benefits?: consent recitals on loss of earnings in orders striking out settled personal injuries actions and the recovery of state benefits from tort damages	43
David Keane
Data Protection and the exercise of the Judicial Function in Ireland	59
Giacomo Bonetto
PTSD and the Law	79
Bronagh O'Hanlon
Beyond Special Measures: challenging traditional constructions of competence and cross-examination for vulnerable witnesses in Ireland	98
Alan Cusack
Respect, reform and research: an empirical insight into judge-jury relations	116
Mark Coen, Niamh Howlin, Colette Barry and John Lynch
Carl Jung, Father Victor White and the Book of Job	134
Peter Charleton
Aguisíní le breithiúnas Hardiman Brmh in Ó Maicín v. Éire atá fágtha ar lár ón tuairisc oifigiúil	148
Dáithí Mac Carthaigh, Seán Ó Conaill
Understanding the law on Rape	193
Ceara Tonna-Barthet & Caoimhe Hunter Blair
Book reviews
Sentencing Rape - A Comparative Analysis by Dr Graeme Brown	208
John Edwards
Minority Religions under Irish Law: Islam in national and International Context, Kathryn O'Sullivan (ed), (Brill 2019)	220
Norah Burns	